Dear Commissioner:

I have just learned that John D. Lathem of your staff is concluding a distinguished career of service with the Treasury Department.

During his assignment with the Internal Revenue Service, Mr. Lathem has been consistently very helpful and cooperative. The commendable manner in which he has discharged his duties has been of great assistance to my Liaison representatives who have worked with him.

All of his friends in the Federal Bureau of Investigation join me in wishing him happiness and success.

Sincerely yours,
